

TV SCHEDULING: FULHAM (A) FA CUP FOURTH ROUND

Once again we are appalled the lack of thought given to travelling supporters ahead of our FA Cup match at Craven Cottage. A 7pm kick off leaves supporters with no option of catching a train home with the last train for Newcastle departing Kings Cross at 9pm, leaving thousands now looking for accommodation in London with only two weeks notice.

The financial and logistical burden imposed on travelling supporters by TV companies is shocking in an industry reaping huge profits. It is always the fans who pay the price.

The loyalty of our supporters is once again being taken for granted in the knowledge that we will fill the away end regardless of the kick off time. We urge the incoming football regulator to ensure that significant changes are put in place to ensure fans are prioritised when it comes to TV scheduling of games.

Howay the lads!
