

NUST SUPPORTERS' GUIDE TO PARIS

Match Info

Paris Saint-Germain (a)

Tuesday 28th November

@ Parc des Princes

KO 9pm local time

The City

The French capital is home to more than 2 million people as well as many famous landmarks such as the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre art museum, the Arc de Triomphe and Notre Dame Cathedral.

Getting to Parc Des Princes

Paris is well-served by bus, Metro and RER express trains. Your match ticket does not allow for free travel.

To get to the stadium via Metro, use Line 9 and get off at Porte de Saint-Cloud.

NUFC have advised NOT to use Line 10 in order to avoid the suburb of Auteuil and the Auteuil

Stand which houses the PSG Ultras. It's also the stand furthest from the away end.

As ever, plan your journey to allow plenty of time for queueing, ticket checks and body searches.

Gates open as early as 6pm.

Pre-match

NUSC have organised a fanzone area (similar to Market Sq/Milan Canal) at Boulogne-Billancourt. No tickets are needed for bars in this area and all are welcome. They recommend using Corcoran's Boulogne as a meeting point before heading to other bars in the area to avoid overcrowding. Most bars will also be showing the game.

Stay vigilant in Paris and travel in groups.

NUST SUPPORTERS' GUIDE TO PARIS

Stadium Info - Parc Des Princes

- Take Metro Line 9 to Porte de Saint-Cloud, which is a 5-10 minute walk from the stadium.
- The Paris Metro system is not wheelchair accessible but there is stadium parking for disabled fans only - please contact NUFC's Disability Support for details.
- From the Metro station, after a short walk on Route de la Reine, turn right down Rue du Commandant Guilbaud, where there will be a soft ticket check.
- NUFC fans will then enter an area for a body search by PSG stewards and a second by the Police.
- This area is small and poorly lit and Police searches are likely to be thorough. NUFC stewards will be present if you need support.
- There will be no ID checks at the gates.
- Supporters sitting in the lower section will be given a wristband to be worn at all times or access won't be granted.
- Fans then make their way to the stadium through a narrow access route with wheelchair users having their own dedicated queue.
- Bags should be smaller than A4 and there are no storage facilities.
- Flags are allowed excluding those with offensive messaging or references to Palestine/Israel.
- Food kiosks accept card or cash. They won't serve alcohol and close shortly after half time.

NUST SUPPORTERS' GUIDE TO PARIS

Post-match

Expect to be kept back in the stadium for a minimum of thirty minutes, though this is likely to be longer.

Keep in mind that the food and drink kiosks close just after half time.

If you are returning to the city centre, use Metro Line 9 from Porte de Saint-Cloud. Avoid the Auteuil end of the stadium.

The Metro runs until 1am.
